Phyl,

I dont know where to start. I dont know if you realize how much your friendship means to me, youve helped me through so much -- parent problems, guy problems, etc.... I hope in my lifetime I can repay you for all the things youve done. you are in a million, and I doubt that Ill ever ever meet anyone else like you. Weve been through quite a bit, for sure, but I think the good out weighs the bad. If I were to list all the "Remember when's" I would have to write a book, so we can keep those times personal, more like inside jokes, (pant pant, 40 cents please, natives, etc!) I really dont mean to sound so bitchy sometimes, but thats why you love me right? I cant go on forever, even though I could, Gentle are the memories.... ♫♫

I love ya phyl!

With the new school year beginning in August, everyone was eating outside and waiting anxiously for the last bell to ring before rushing off to the pool. Athletes dreading hot afternoon practices prayed for cooler weather.

Pep rallies, Frosh elections, and Youth week were welcome releases from the long and already monotonous school year. Senior pranks started early for some seniors, who vandalised the school. Chemicals were destroyed along with books and windows.

Head Coach Bill Hoffeld is hoping for a better season next year though he realizes the squad will lack senior experience. He expects that the dedication and leadership of the players will lead to success in the year to come.

The J.V. Volleyball team ended their seson with a 12-2 record, and captured the EHL Championship. Coach D.J. Hammond was quite pleased with her team's performance. Most of the team was composed of freshmen and there was only one member who had previously played, but the team worked together and had an exciting season.

The girls' soccer team, the newest addition to Madeira's athletic department, is worthy of much praise. Captains Cathy Plaut, Donna Hyatt and Terri Stewart led their team to a 6-5-2 season. They captured the championship at Country Day Invitational Tourney. Coach Jay Hanson expects a lot out of his team and reports that most of the squad will return next year.

Though their record does not show it, Madeira's Cross Country team posted a most impressive season. A tremendous effort by Sue Born qualified her to compete in the state meet where she placed 14th among 75 runners. Coach Joe Clifton expects the team's record, 63-77, will be improved next year while he admits it will be a big rebuilding period.

Golf

The Girls golf team, coached by Mrs. McVicker, did not have a winning season this past year, but the team's morale and excitement were not affected by their record. The squad held their home tournaments at the prestigious Camargo Country Club in Indian Hill. Ann Collier, the team's top player, is very promising and coach McVicker hopes Ann's efforts will aid the team in the years to come.

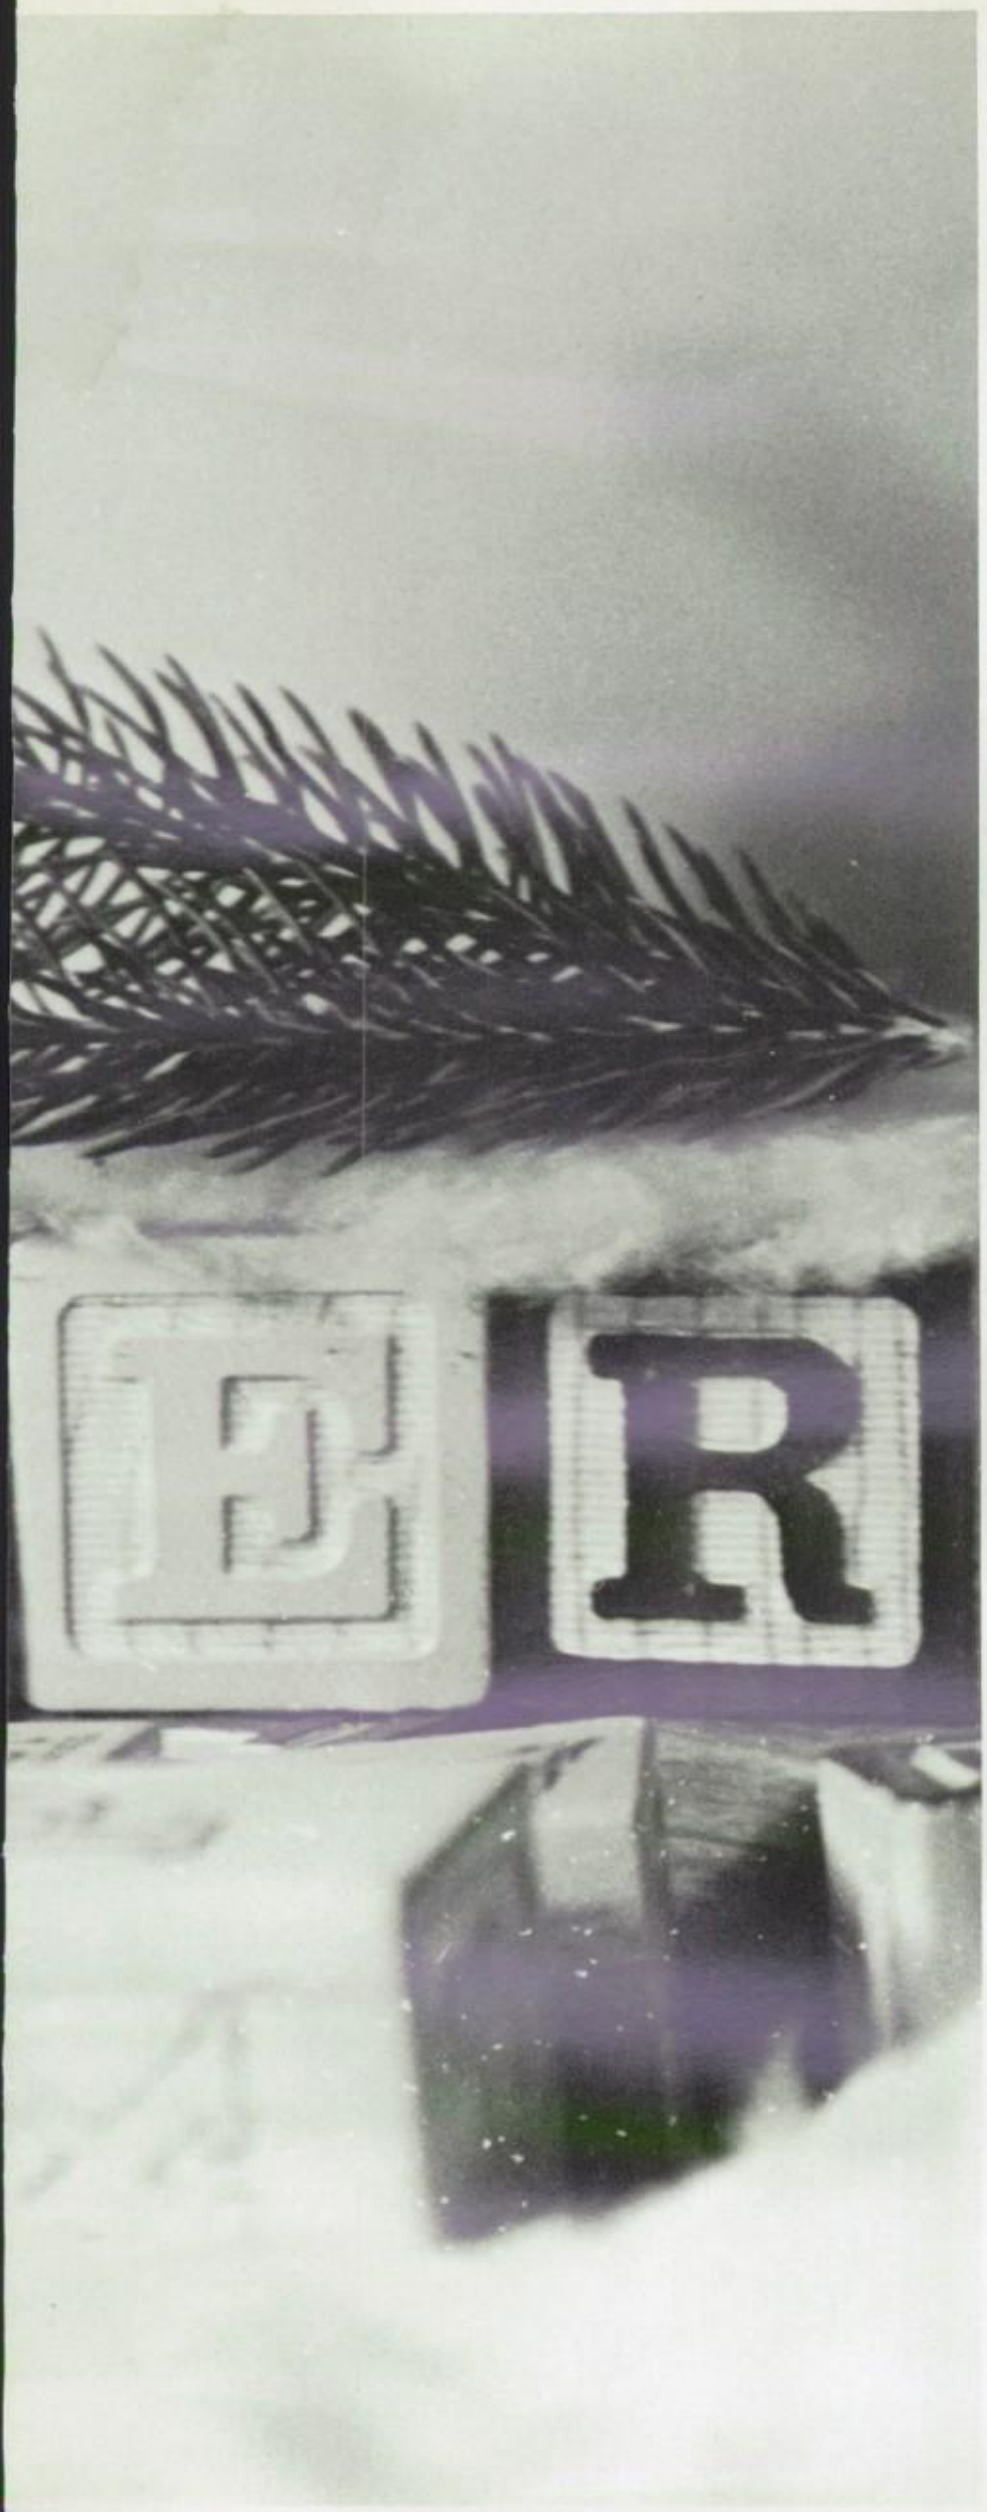
WENT



Building blocks

for helping our friends
and for pardoning our enemies.

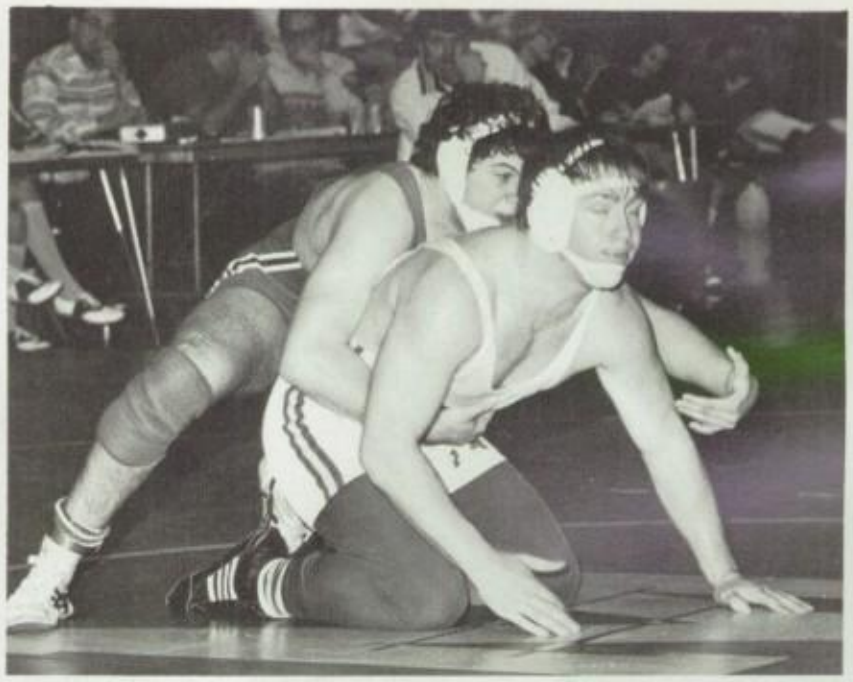
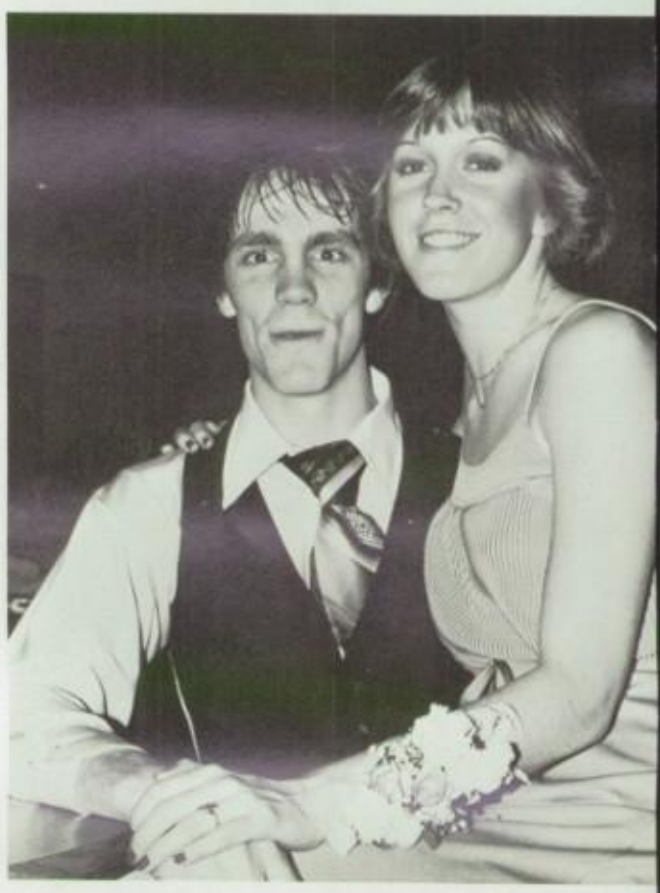
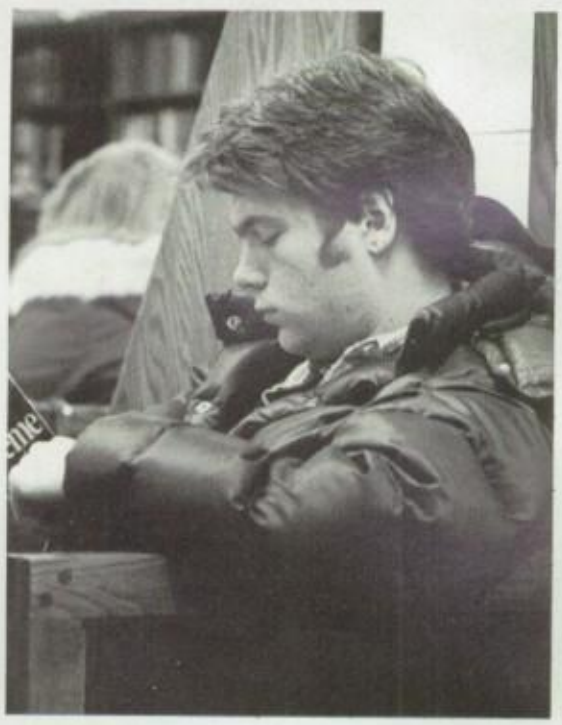
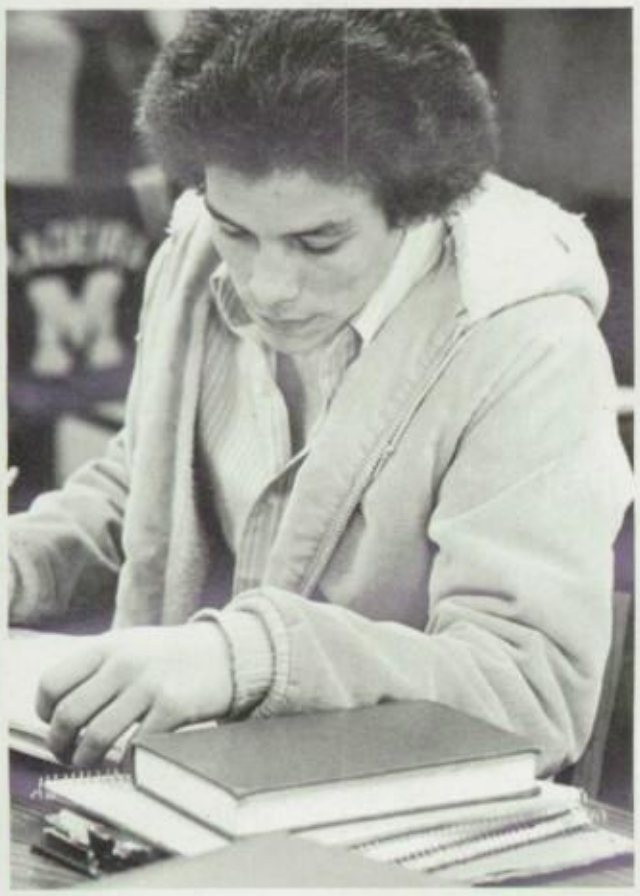
During the cold winter months we waited for snow days, watched our basketball team win the E.H.L., and enjoyed Christmas vacation.

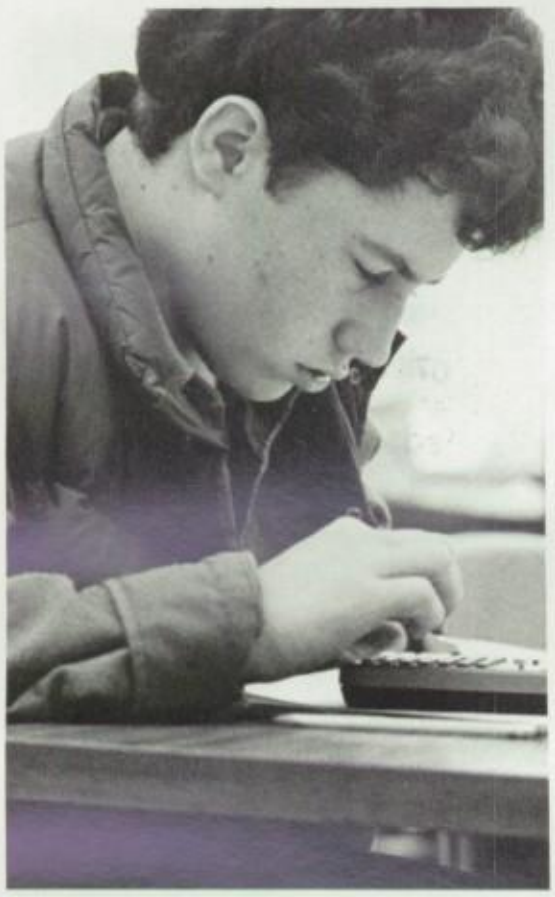
Basketball Homecoming also gave us a chance to break the montony of school.

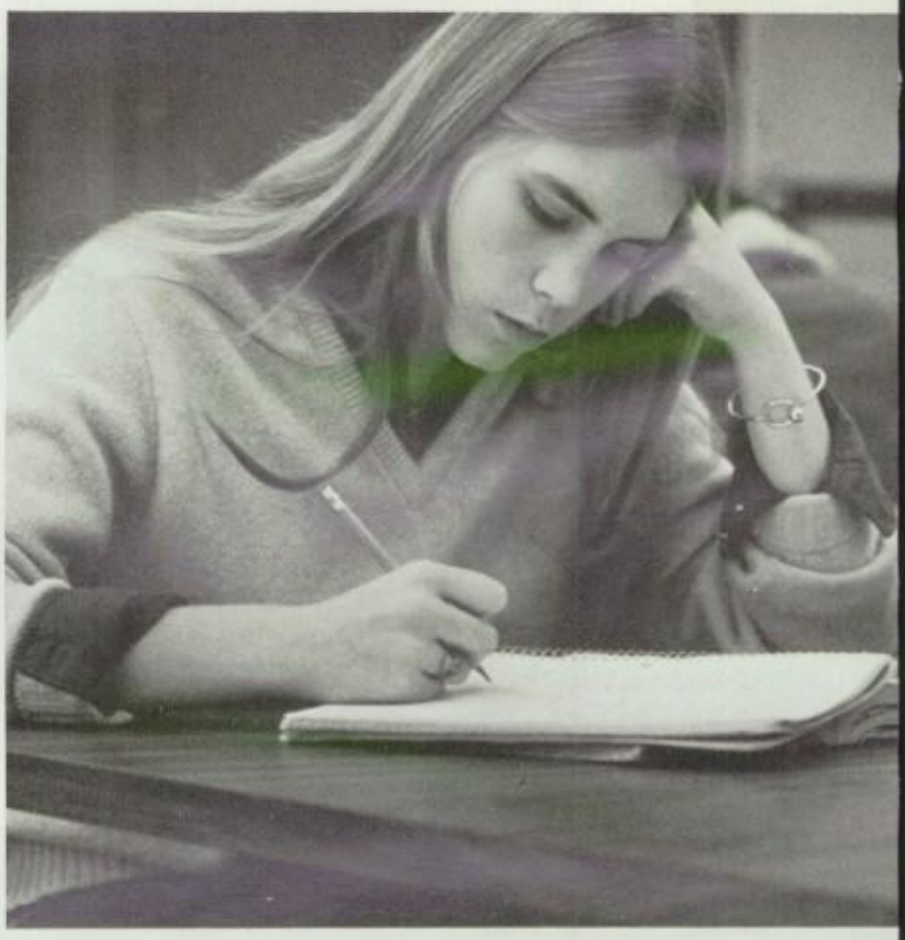


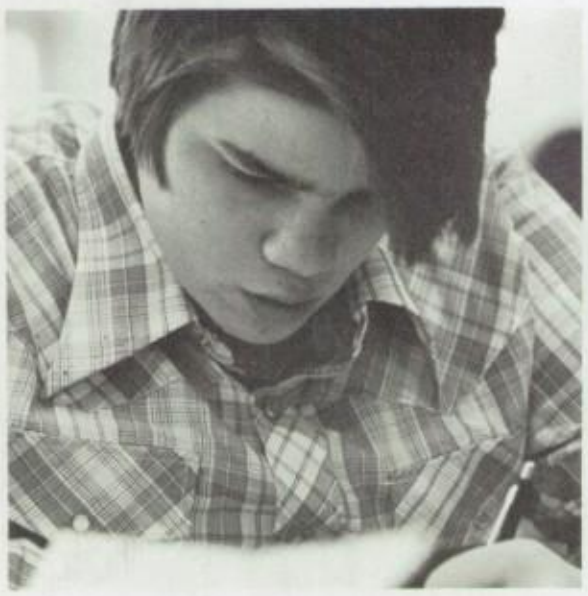


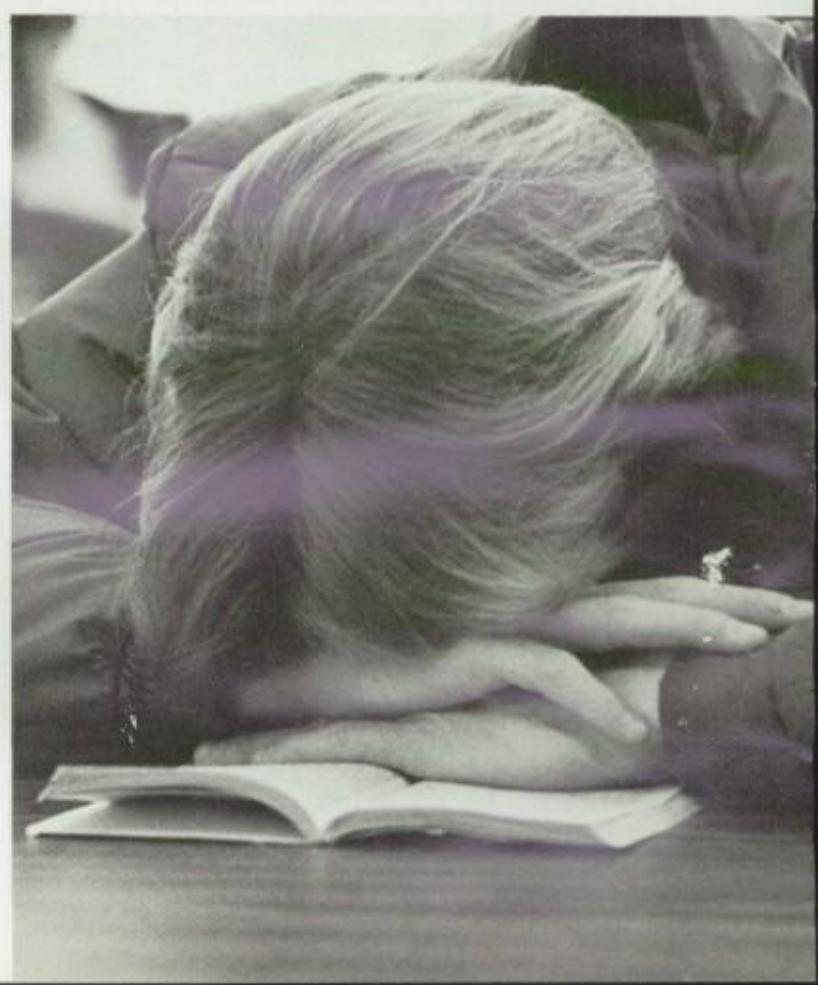












Of course the end of the first semester meant starting new courses and more homework! Most of us were kept busy, however, with activities such as the band pizza sale, the science fair, and freshman orientation.

Basketball Homecoming

In a close, tough basketball game against Milford, Madeira lost 48-50 in overtime. Even though we lost, the dance was a great success. The theme of homecoming was "Winter Wonderland". Everyone danced to the music by "Passin' Thru"! Debbie Deible, escorted by Tom Gardner, was crowned queen.

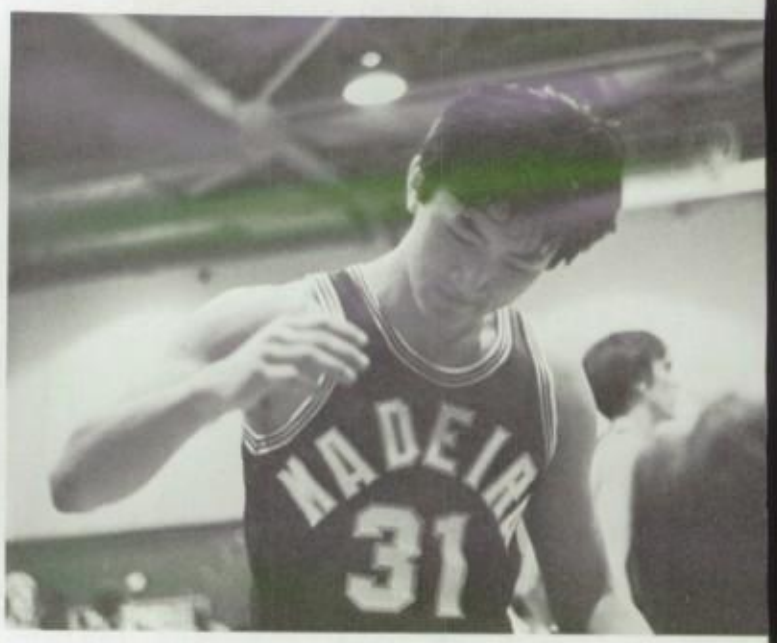
Varsity Basketball Teams EHL Champs

Coach Bob Gardner never ceases to amaze M.H.S., and this year is no exception. With an overall 16-6 record, the varsity squad not only captured the E.H.L. title but went all the way to the district finals before losing to Reading by just six points. An outstanding effort by Senior Pete Knapper boosted the team's performance as well as its spirit. Coach Gardner suspects next year will be a rebuilding one as the squad will lose some very fine starting seniors, including Pete Knapper, Jim Choi, Dave Russell, and Bruce Gregg.



Kneeling: Dave Oury, Jim Choi, Clark Deer, Bruce Gregg, Tosh Murata, Chip McCreary, Doug Mason, Standing: Coach Gardner, Tom Gardner, Doug Korengel, Mike Warmouth, Dave Russell, Pete Knapper, Mark Abendroth, Dave Wick

Coach Wilson has completed another spectacular season with a 22-2 record. Her Amazons won the E.H.L. title, and Pam Mack and Melinda Crane made the EHL All-Star team. Melinda was also selected for the second "All Ohio" team. The squad is losing some very fine seniors, but with the hard work and determination of the juniors and sophomores, the team should have a good season next year.

The Junior Varsity Basketball team did not have a very good season this year, with a record of 1-17, and sixth in E.H.L. Coach Shipman is looking for a better season next year.

Varsity Cheerleaders

Ardi Jones, Karen Eshman, Beth Gibbons, Missy Brenner, Debbie Deible, Lynn Sanders, Carla Robinson, Anne Oliver

This year's varsity cheerleaders went to DCA camp during the summer and received second place in competition. They were also voted "most spirited cheerleaders" by the other squads. They aroused school spirit with pep rallies, spirit ribbons, and dinners for the players.

JV Cheerleaders

Tammy Taylor, Ann Prather, Nora Rush, Shari Smith, Cindy Stewart

The JV cheerleaders worked hard this year to support the athletic teams. They assisted the varsity squad in producing many successful pep rallies and other activities. Although they were short one person, they did an excellent job with only five girls.

Freshman Cheerleaders

Mary Ruth Oliver, Kelly Smith, Maria Whitton, Patty DeSantis, Margie Deerwester, Kristie Brockhage

The freshman cheerleaders encouraged the freshmen teams to victory with their spirit at the games. This squad is considered to be very skilled although they are the youngest, and their enthusiasm was contagious at every pep rally.

Wrestlerettes

Sue Schmidt, Donae Clark, Linda O'Donnel, Bea McDonough, Kay Seeger, Beth Wirthlin

At the Madeira Wrestling Invitational, a chocolate train cake was made by the wrestlerettes. Their slogan for the wrestlers was "Keep on the winning track!" For these enthusiastic girls, rituals were important — dinner at the Ponderosa was a favorite and green M & M's were always eaten first!

Administration

The administration is going back to the basics, stressing both English and Math. They are trying to get more students involved in activities at school by having class competition and other fun things.

Mr. Beard, Activities Director; Mr. Williamson, Principal; Mr. Moore, Vice Principal.

Secretaries

Secretaries in the office help both the students and the administration by keeping papers neat and in order. Mrs. Donosky helps students find scholarships and information on different colleges when counselors are not in.

Mrs. Donosky, Mrs. Cromer, Mrs. Leischer.

Specialists

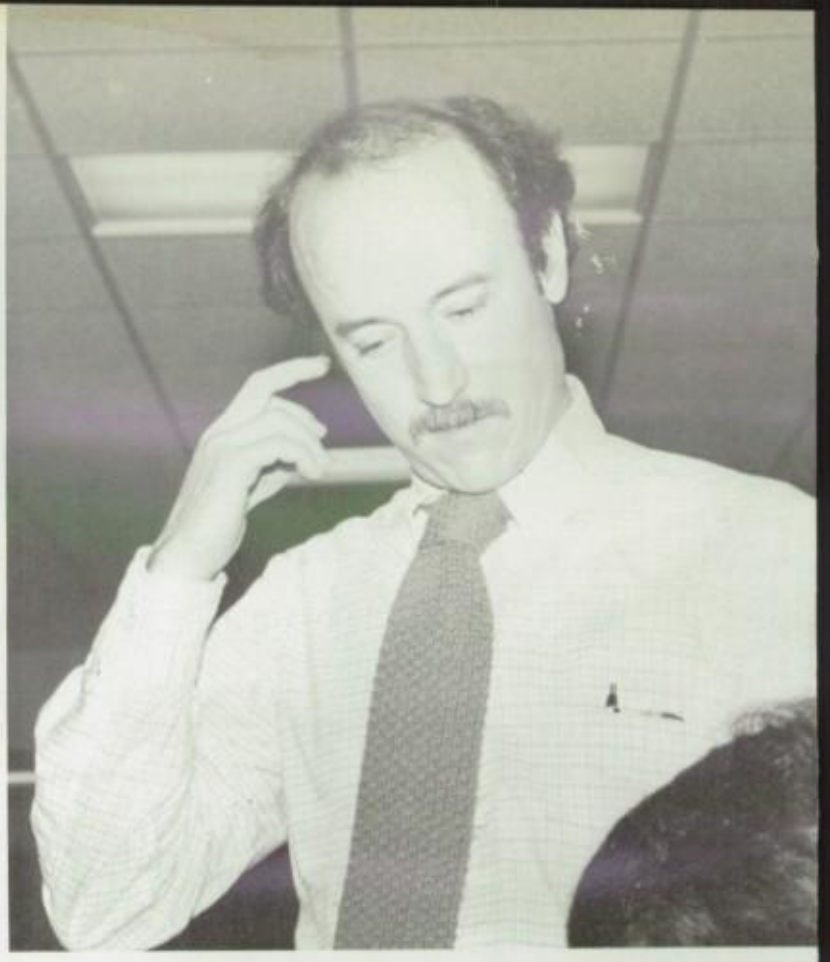
The counselors this year have had a lot of help from the new computer. This computer helps students to pick both a career and a college. The Media Center has a new librarian, Mrs. VanEpps, who replaced Mrs. Tafel. She had been busy ordering films for teachers and helping students find research materials. Mrs. Anderson, the special education teacher, began teaching this year after Mrs. Ware left.

Mrs. VanEpps, Librarian; Ms. Hacker, Guidance; Mrs. Anderson, Special Ed.; Mr. Stouffer, Guidance.

Mathematics

The Math Department each year sends students to Thomas More and The University of Cincinnati for different math contests. This year Kevin Scott received twenty dollars and a medal for scoring high on the tests. An honors calculus course is offered for those students wishing to receive college credit.

Mrs. McVicker, Mr. Taylor, Mr. Combs.



Sciences

Science courses range from Biology to Physics. A lab can consist of dissecting crayfish and pigs or making candy canes and taffy. Students can also enter exhibits in the annual science fair.

Mr. Hartley, Mr. Shipman, Mr. Buchy, Mr. Johnson.

English

The English Department offers almost any English course a student would want to take, from Shakespeare to learning how to write a thesis paper. Honors courses are offered to all students.

Mrs. Gutting, Mr. Rafoth, Mrs. Barr, Ms. Kersell, Mrs. Hammond.

Social Studies

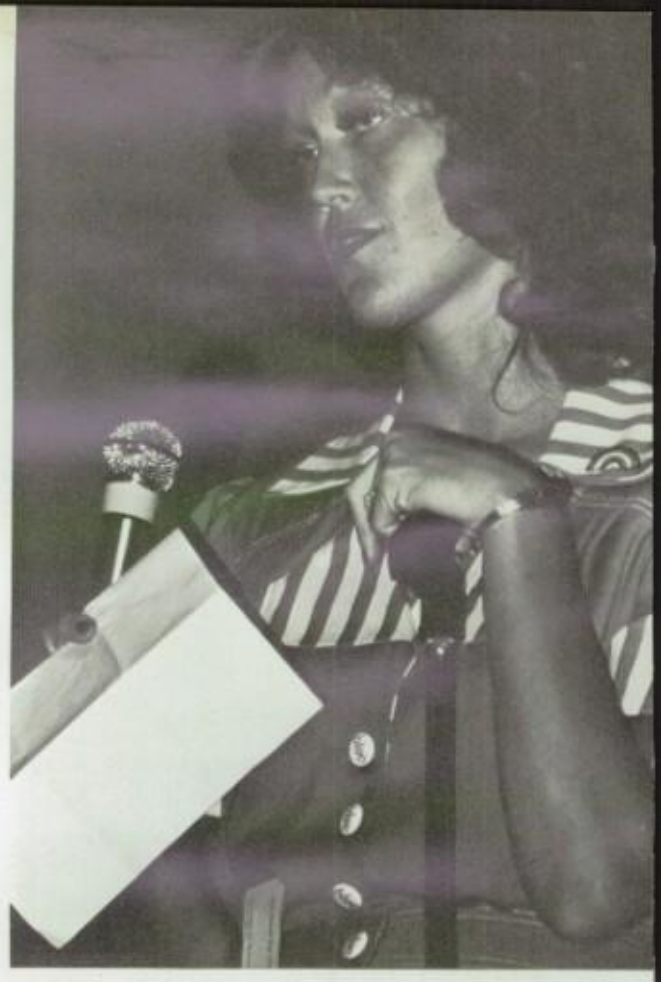
The Social Studies Department offers many interesting courses which range from ancient times to modern society. Government courses are taken by seniors each year and history is taught to sophomores and juniors.

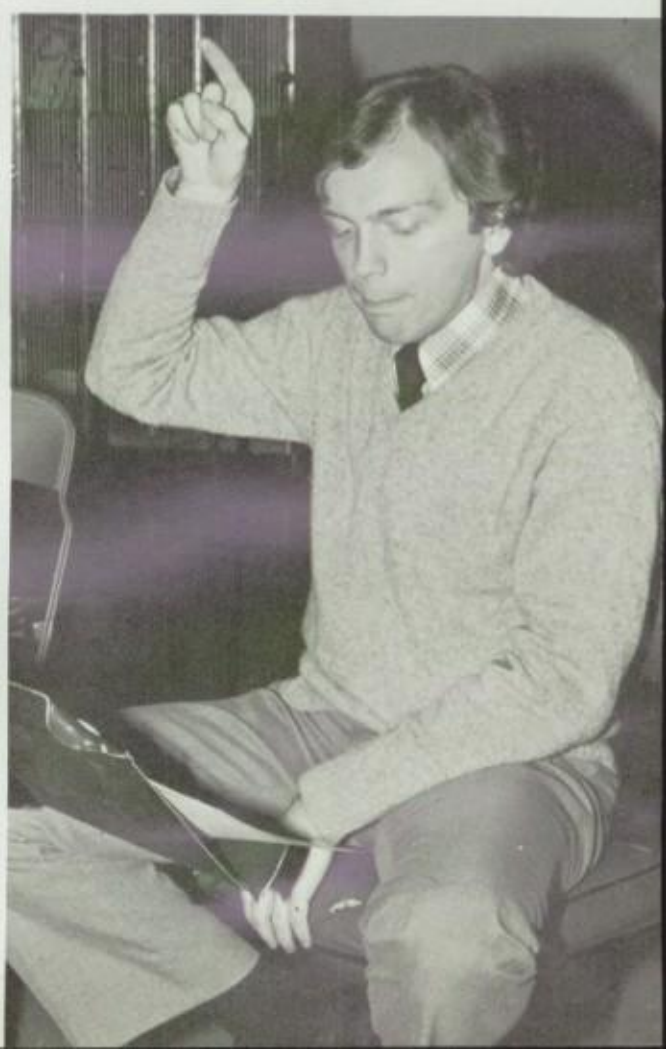
Mr. Tanner, Mrs. Smalara, Mr. Hanson, Mrs. Tuck.

Foreign Languages

Maderia High School offers four foreign languages: French, Spanish, Latin, and German. All programs have honors classes for third and fourth year students.

Mr. Effler, Spanish; Mr. Budde, Latin; Mrs. McNeely, German; Mrs. Schneider, French.





Athletics

The Physical Education Department offers many more different and specialized classes to get more students involved in sports. Tennis, soccer, and paddleball classes are becoming very popular.

Miss Wilson, Mr. Gardner, Mr. Hoffeld, Mrs. Hehman

Business

The Business Department offers a large variety of courses ranging from the standard courses, such as typing and shorthand, to consumer economics and business law. This department also had two co-operative programs, D.E. and C.O.E., where retailing, marketing, office machines, and transcriptions are offered.

Mr. Foreback, Mrs. Coe, Mrs. Cantwell, Mrs. Stewart

Arts

Art, Home Ec., and Shop are elective courses which enable students to develop individual talents in these areas. Students learn skills that can be used after graduation.

Mr. Young, Mr. Dishon, Mrs. Barr

Music

Class Of '80

The biggest task the Juniors had this year was raising money for the Junior-Senior Prom, on May 19, at Old Coney.

They raised the money by keeping the candy machines filled, sponsoring bake sales, dances after football and basketball games.

For Winter Homecoming the Juniors were in charge of the crown for the queen and flowers for the court.

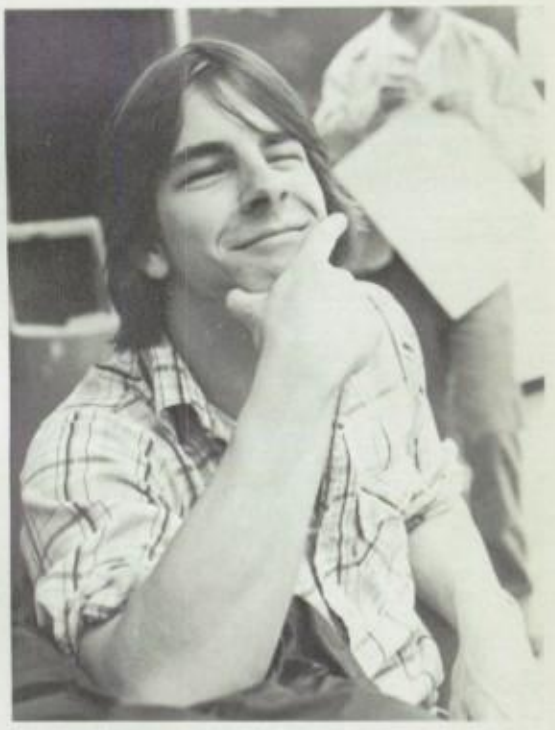
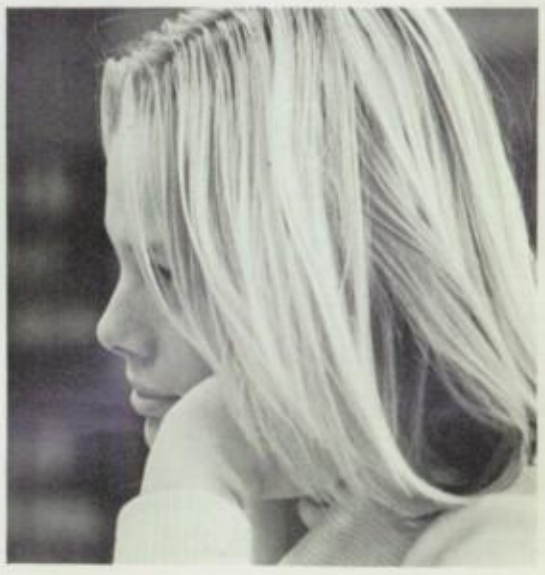
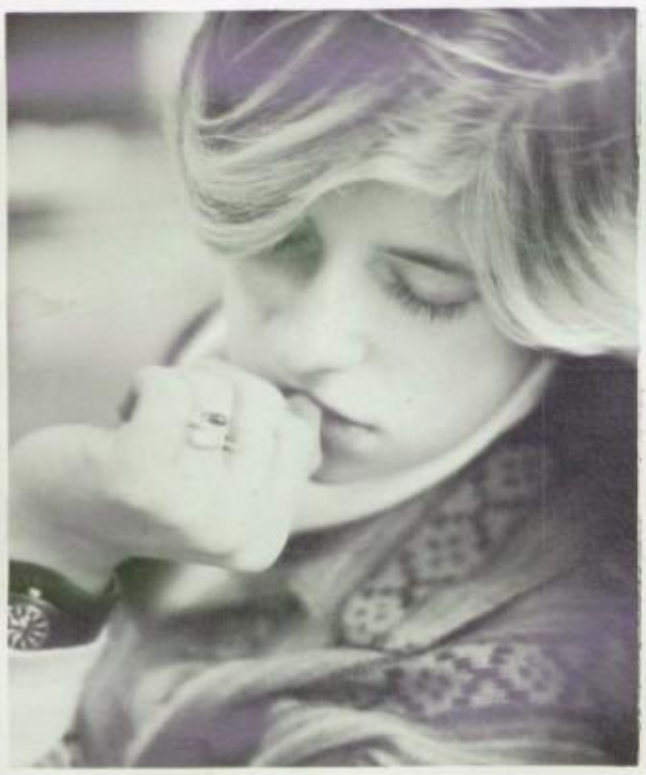
Senior class officers: Barb Wolfe, Michelle Mikelonis, Beth Eddingfield, Janice Born.



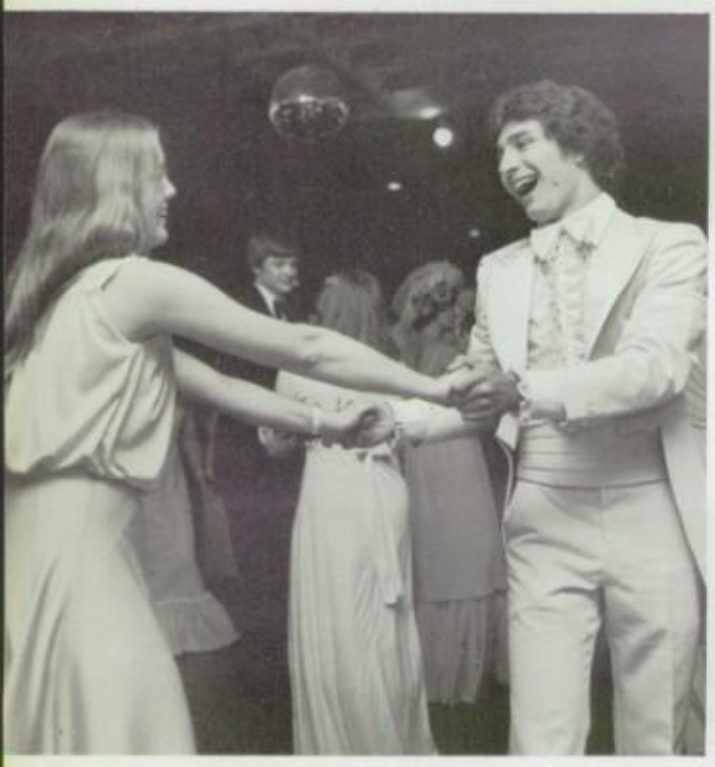


The class of '79 really enjoyed senior year. Once school and football season began, everyone eagerly got involved in pep rallies, Homecoming, new classes and student elections. Of course trips to Florida, Mexico and France were welcome changes during winter and spring breaks.

Open lunch meant Skyline or MacDonald's unless "no one drove," and senior pranks during the last few weeks of school allowed "rowdy seniors" to celebrate spring fever and graduation.



Prom



Memories of the warm spring evening and celebrating with friends will remind us of Prom at Old Coney this year. The junior class decorated the dance on May 19, 1979 at the Moon light Pavillion with the theme "We May Never Pass This Way Again" and the music was provided by Blue Tater.

Bruce Gregg and Jeanne Marquart were crowned King and Queen. Their court included: Todd Shelton, Doug Korengel, Mark Schafer, John Case and Dale Puterbaugh; Joni Painter, Karen Eshman, Ardy Jones, Debbie Deible and Kelly Wilson.

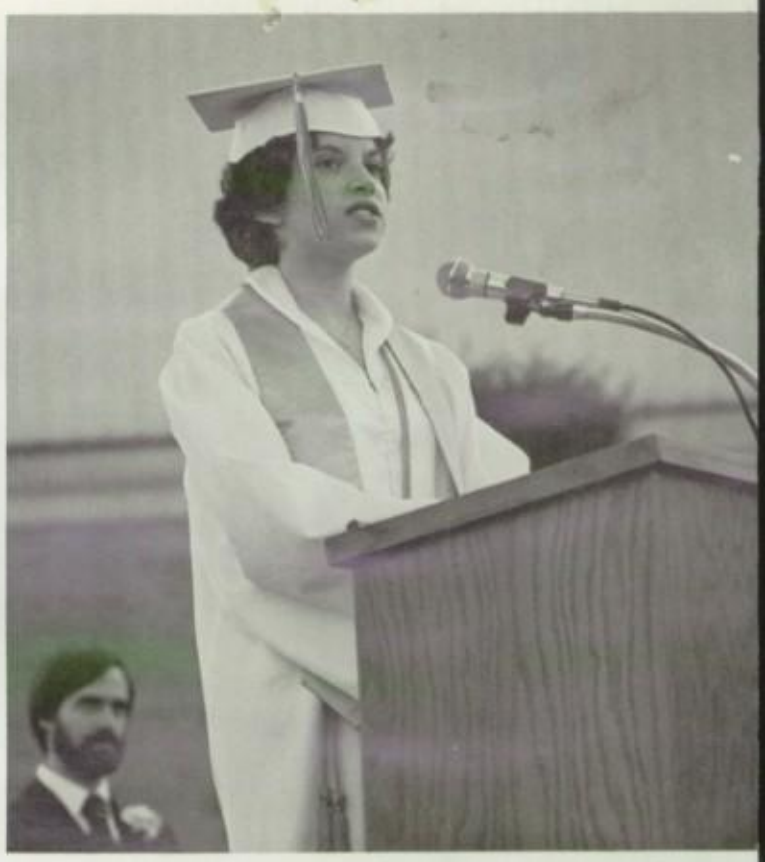
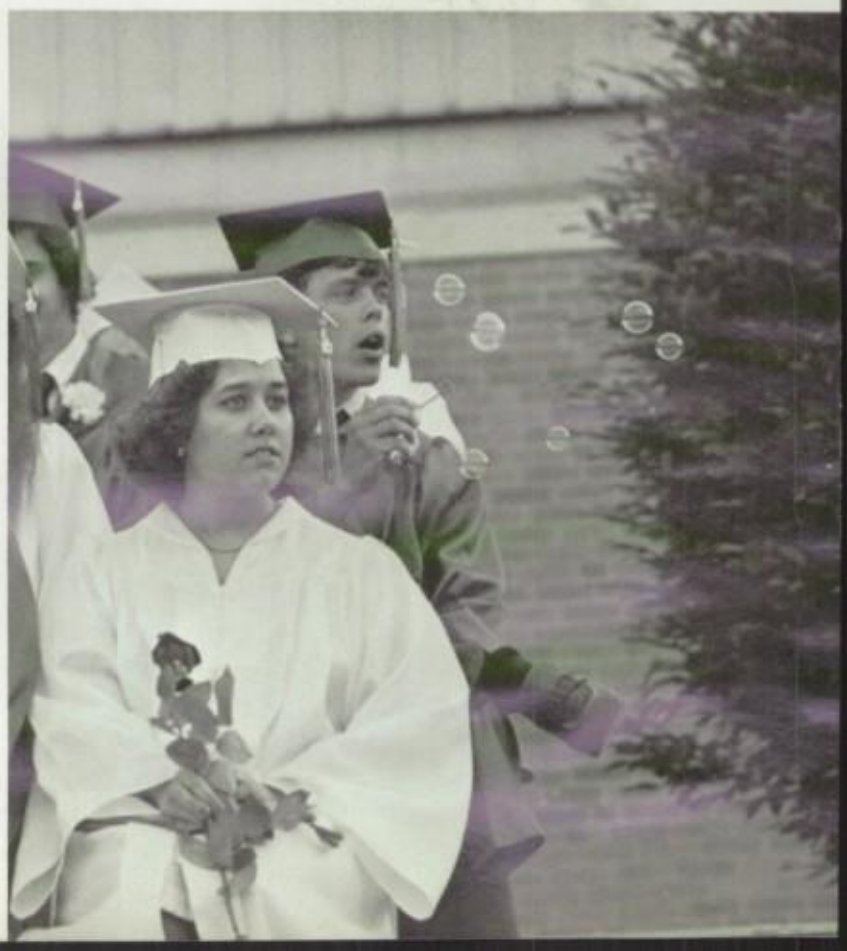
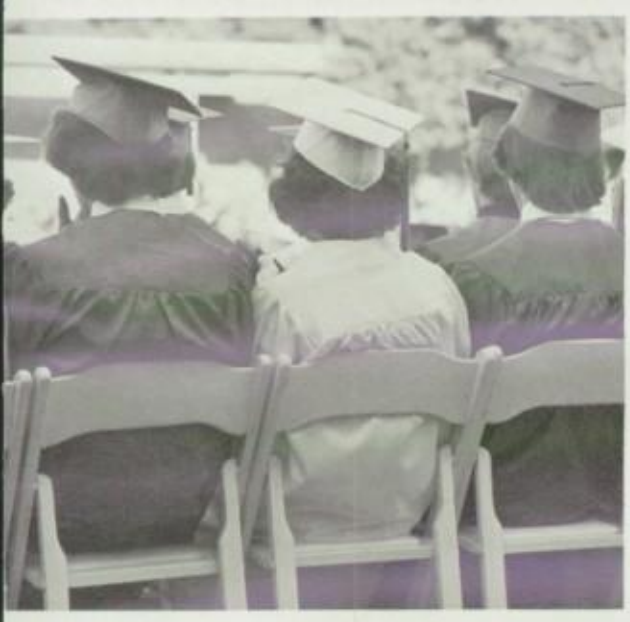
Graduation



For the seniors, the end of the school year means more than finishing exams and cleaning your locker. Suddenly, you belong to the future and the familiar routine and faces belong to the past, to all those impressions building each year and lasting forever.





You are anxious to graduate, to connect this final block of time in your high school education. You discover how much you have grown, changed and learned at Madeira High School. Then, you are together as seniors for the last time at Commencement. When the moment for departure arrives, you watch your friends passing down the aisle and say . . . farewell.

I know it must be really rough without its great seniors gone, but I'm sure you guys will make the best of it. Have fun in school & everything else. Remember the good times we had at Prom. Good luck

Love
Jeanne

Phyllis,
You know yesterday was the worst day of my life. I was talking to you and I knew I'd be take on phone and don't have to be myself. Dear and I love you and I'm so sorry. I got about my feelings. Love is your thoughts. Love wasn't meant to be. Love is hard, you have to give and I could write more about it, but I'm really, really tired. Hope you have a great day. Love ya, PTL

Phyllis-
To a wonderful student & friend
It's nice to have people like you in my class. Continue your enthusiasm in everything you do. Look forward to a successful year of Junior.

Always-
Ms Watson

Phil-
Your such a special person to me. Your values about everything are important because I believe the same things you do. Saranac was great this past summer and I'll never forget it. I hope we can continue to have great times together at F.L. or school or wherever we are together. Good luck in everything you do and God Bless You.

Love Always, Pam

Phyllis!

Phyllis,
I can never write

happen - I don't know what, but it will happen
